EXCLUSIONS/EXCEPTIONS

No exclusions.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOX AUDIT GUIDELINES

- 1) A Safety Deposit Box Audit must occur quarterly by a Finance Team Member (if no Finance Team Member exists, the Operations Leader must designate an appropriate Team Member to perform the audit). The audit must include both guest and Team Member safety deposit boxes.
- 2) The Safety Deposit Box Audit must be documented and include the following:
 - a) Safety Deposit Box Number
 - b) Status of Safety Deposit Box key (i.e., issued or not issued)
 - c) If applicable, Name of Team Member or guest issued to
 - d) Explanation of out of order boxes
 - e) Other comments for exceptions (i.e., missing keys, guest departure date not indicated on agreements, etc.)
- 3) The form must be signed by the Finance Team Member conducting the audit (or designee) and must be approved by the Finance Leader or Operations Leader. The form must be maintained on file in a secured location at the Hotel.
- 4) As part of the quarterly Safety Deposit Box Audit the Team Member conducting the audit must verify the following:
 - a) Safety Deposit Boxes are only in use by designated Team Members to safeguard their house funds and on an exceptional basis by registered in-house guests. Reference FP-OPSFIN-144 Tenant Leases & Concessionaire Agreements for tenant exception.
 - b) The General Cashier is in possession of all unassigned Team Member Safety Deposit Box keys.
 - c) At least monthly, Front Office performs key audits on all guest Safety Deposit Boxes and documents their counts. Additionally, the Team Member conducting the audit must verify the following is in place for all in-use guest Safety Deposit Boxes:
 - The required safety deposit box forms per FP-RM-015 are used and securely retained by the Hotel
 - The safety deposit box forms are filled out completely with date and time indicated
 - The safety deposit box forms are closed out correctly (upon turning in the key) including guest signature
 - d) Any safety deposit boxes with unaccounted for or missing keys found during the quarterly Safety Deposit Box Audit must be documented and the Finance Leader or Operations Leader must be notified to commence a formal investigation. The results of this investigation must be reviewed by the Finance Leader or Operations Leader to confirm that the issue is resolved.
