EXTERNAL SPEAKING

Hilton maintains strict standards around external speaking opportunities and events when speaking as a representative for Hilton and/or a specific property. Each request for participation in such a speaking opportunity is evaluated along the following parameters:

- Is there a clear need and business rationale for participating in this event that supports Hilton's commercial strategy?
- Is the proposed spokesperson the appropriate public representative for Hilton on this given topic?
- Does the content meet the requirements that Hilton has in place for public disclosures?

All speaking opportunities and events as a representative of the Company should be cleared with Hilton Corporate Communications through the Hilton External Speaking Engagement Approval Form. Once a request to speak at a public forum in such a capacity is approved, all content for presentations in public forums must be reviewed and approved by a Hilton Corporate Communications representative.

DIGITAL

ONLINE PARTICIPATION

Hilton is committed to empowering digital participation while protecting their online reputation. The policies outlined below support Hilton's Values, Code of Conduct and all other applicable policies, and must be followed at all times.

Code of Conduct

These apply to any interaction or activity with all Internet communications including, but not limited to:

- Social Networking (e.g. Facebook, LinkedIn, Google+)
- Micro-blogging Sites (e.g. Twitter, Sina Weibo)
- Blogs (including company and personal blogs, as well as comments)
- Streaming, Video and Photo Sharing (e.g. Instagram, Flickr, YouTube, Vimeo, Periscope)
- Forums and Discussion Boards (e.g. Pinterest, Reddit, Google Groups)
- Online Encyclopedias (e.g. Wikipedia)
- Video and Instant Messaging (e.g. Snapchat, Google Hangouts, iMessage, FaceTime, Skype, Viber)
- Review Sites (e.g. TripAdvisor, Glassdoor, Yelp)
- Online Voting or Polls

Approach all online conversations as potentially public and permanent. Using privacy tools does not ensure 100% privacy. The following are Hilton digital guidelines that must be followed when communicating online:

TRANSPARENCY

- a) Avoid creating the appearance that your individual views are Hilton's. If you express personal opinions, please describe them as such.
- b) Do not represent yourself as a spokesperson for Hilton and/or a specific property, unless expressly authorized to do so.
- c) Do not commit Hilton to any actions unless you are authorized to do so.
- d) If Hilton, its brands, partners, vendors, guests or other relevant past, present or future stakeholders are the subject of the content being discussed, consider whether you wish to comment. If you do, be clear and open about being a Hilton Corporate or Managed Team Member and state that the views espoused are personal and not necessarily those of the company, customers or others associated with Hilton.

WORK-RELATED ISSUES

- a) Hilton encourages Corporate and Managed Team Members to speak directly with their managers to resolve work-related issues, including issues concerning terms and conditions of employment. A constructive approach maximizes the chance for resolution, where posting issues on social media often results in issues being escalated, rather than resolved.
- b) A Corporate or Managed Team Member posting complaints or criticisms regarding working conditions should avoid including statements, photographs, video or audio that could be reasonably viewed as obscene or physically threatening. Similarly, comments that disparage customers or constitute harassment based on any protected characteristic should also be avoided. Examples include postings that are slanderous, libelous, or defamatory or contribute to a hostile work environment on the basis of sex, disabilities, national origin, sexual orientation, religion or any other status protected by law.

COLLEAGUES' PRIVACY

- a) Before posting a photo taken at work or at a work-related event online, please seek the permission of those in the photo. If you are posting such pictures to an official brand or Company site, you must obtain approval using the Hilton photo release.
- b) Pre-approved photos of the Hilton Executive Committee are available for download online at newsroom.hilton.com.

ACCURACY AND AUTHENTICITY

- a) Falsifying an online review or profile is extremely damaging to both the individual's credibility, and reputation and potentially that of Hilton as well. It may also lead to disciplinary action.
- b) If the Company is being misrepresented, or a social media profile or article requires a correction, email socialmedia@hilton.com.

COMPLIANCE WITH ALL EXISTING COMPANY AND WEBSITE POLICIES

- a) Ensure compliance with any brand-specific social media policies or guidelines when representing a Hilton brand.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR ONLINE ACTIONS

- a) If you post information online on behalf of Hilton or a property, you are also responsible for the legality and appropriateness of that content.
- b) Appropriate credit should be provided to the sources of uploaded information when it is not one's own, including photos or videos. Copyright, privacy and other laws that apply offline also apply online.
